Court Hearing Notice

Accused's Details	Full name
	Address
Hearing details	The charge(s) in the attached prosecution notice dated [insert date] will be first dealt with by the above court at the time, date and place stated below.
Date and time	Date		Time
Place

Notice to accused	Your options are set out below. You should read them carefully. If you do not know what to do, you should get advice from a lawyer, the Legal Aid Commission or the Aboriginal Legal Service. If you will need an interpreter in court, please contact the court.
Options	1. You can attend the above hearing. 2. You can do nothing. 3. You can plead not guilty in writing. 4. You can plead guilty in writing. Options 2, 3 and 4 are explained below.
Doing nothing [Option 2]	If you do not appear at the above hearing and you do not send the court a written plea in time, the court may determine the charge(s) at the above hearing in your absence. In some cases the court can take as proved any allegation in the attached prosecution notice without hearing evidence. The court may decide to summons you to court or have you arrested and brought before the court. If the court finds you guilty, it may fine you and order you to pay court costs and the prosecutor's costs.
Pleading not guilty in writing [Option 3]	Pleading not guilty to a charge in the prosecution notice means you do not admit the charge. If you send the court a written plea of not guilty , you need not attend the above hearing. If the court receives your written plea in time it will send you a notice of another hearing, at which the court will deal with the charge(s) (in your absence if you are not there) and hear any evidence you wish to give and any witnesses you call. To send the court a written plea of not guilty, fill out page 2 of this form and send page 2 to the address on it at least three days before the above hearing date.
Pleading guilty in writing [Option 4]	Pleading guilty to a charge in the prosecution notice means you admit the charge. If you send the court a written plea of guilty , you need not attend the above hearing unless you want to tell the court something. If the court receives your written plea in time it will deal with the charge(s) at the above hearing (in your absence if you are not there) and may fine you and order you to pay court costs and the prosecutor's costs. To send the court a written plea of guilty, fill out page 2 of this form, include any written explanation or information you want the court to consider, and send it all to the address on the form at least three days before the above hearing date. The court might not accept your plea of guilty if what you tell the court suggests you do not admit the charge. If that happens you will be notified.
